

Sanitary Engineering

Support for the development of a new approach to the Urban Water Cycle focused on Decarbonization and Circular Economy

Physical-chemical and biological analyses in different environmental compartments: water, plant biomass, soils, and sediments

To support
Technological Innovation for designing sustainable and smart
Coastal Urban Areas

